

Jacorey Reginald Harris Jr

December 1, 1999 - March 13, 2019

In profound sorrow we announce the passing of Jacoery Harris, 19 of Newnan, Georgia as pronounced on Sunday, March 13, 2019.

Memorial service will be held on Saturday, April 27, 2019, 12:00 PM at A Place of Refuge, Newnan, Georgia, Reverend Leonard D. Cochran, Pastor.

Jacorey R. Harris Jr. was born December 1, 1999 in Columbus, Georgia to Anita Shiree James and Reginald Joe Harris. He graduated from Newnan High School in May, 2018 and was active in the church in his childhood years.

Jacorey loved music, spending time with his family, helping others, sleeping, church, playing video games, and playing football.

He leaves to cherish his wonderful memories, his mother, Ms. Anita S. James (daughter of Felicia James and late Eddie B. James), father, Reginald J. Harris (son of Myrtis Short and Joe Harris), siblings, Quintavious James, Latrayvious James, Mercedes James, and Chamir James. Jacorey was the baby of the siblings. He has a football team of nieces and nephews who will forever remember the times they spent with him. He was known throughout the family as Corey; friends called him J.C., and he was given the nickname "sexy chocolate drop," from his aunt, Chandra James.

He was the most humble child growing up and never caused any problems growing up. His mom describes him as being the perfect child. He had a smile that lit up a room and the brilliance of a genius. He was dependable, friendly, loving, caring, kind, and willing to give his last to someone in need. His favorite thing to say was that "love is the key in life," and that God was love and he could always feel it. He did not like negativity and wanted to be known as a positive and optimistic person. He loved his mother like no one else in his life and his wish, which was always spoken, was for her to be happy, healthy, and to take care of herself, because she did a good job raising her children and now it is time to focus on herself. One thing he always told his oldest brother is that there is a heaven and he could only imagine being able to see God for himself.

His love will always be within us and his light will shine in us all forever. God has never made one mistake and Jacorey would want everyone to go on and be happy because he is resting in eternal joy with the Lord, Jesus Christ!
