“ Mrs. Hill,

I am glad I got to know the real Opal Hill. I remember our first meeting, I was terrified of you; and the first time you kept Rique when I kept calling checking on him, how quick you were to put me in my place by telling me, If I did not trust you to come get him. WOW! I thought to myself she don't know who she talking to, needless to say I didn't call back.

I am glad we had that moment together to pray and for you to rest in Christ.

I love you!

“ Grandma,
I love you so much . I miss you terribly. Things just don't feel the same without you. To me you was more than just my grandmother , you was like a mother to me. You raised me since I was 6 months old. You loved me , cared for me , protected me. Now I don't know where to turn. I wish I could've saw you one last time. I didn't know that you wouldn't be coming back home when you left that night , if I would've known that I would stayed by your side until your last breath. It's so hard to hold back the tears. The woman who raised me is gone forever. It hurts a lot. But I know you are much happier and at peace now that you are free of pain and reunited with loved ones especially Jacqueline. I know you missed her terribly but I hope the two of you are having a ball up there in heaven. I love you always and forever grandma. I will never forget all the good memories/times we had together. I will cherish them forever. I will make sure that Michael knows how amazing you were , I'm sad that you didn't get the chance to meet him , but I know your probably watching over him and smiling down at him & Jowell , you know he always asks about you , he loved you so much , he used to make you laugh all the time. I'll make sure that he won't forget you. I'm sure he won't because he doesn't forget anything like you always used to say about him lol. Please watch over me and my boys grandma , you are my best guardian angel. But Christmas is coming up... I'm not sure if I'm ready for Christmas. Knowing that you won't be here , is killing me inside. I know you don't want me to cry grandma but it's so hard and heartbreaking. I had to watch you suffer it absolutely broke my heart. As I'm typing this tears are starting to roll. I love you. I'll see you again one day. This isn't goodbye , it's see you later. I love you so much and miss you. Rest in paradise my beautiful angel.
Love always ,
Marquesha, Jowell, & Michael
